

“I look to the future as that is where I am going to spend the rest of my life”

George Burns

In Control Residential Workshop for our Community of Change

6th and 7th November 2018
Sheffield

This residential will focus on how we look to the future both for children and young people but also as organisations as to the future of social care and support.

Outline programme (maybe subject to change)

Tuesday 6th November 2018

- 10.30 Arrival, coffee and registration
- 11.00 Welcome and the plan for the next two days
Julie Stansfield, In Control
- 11.15 Keynotes
- Gail Walshe, Head of Parent Carer Participation from Contact a Family
 - Andrew Baxter, Department for Education, Looked after children
- 12.00 What we've got and what we need
We will create two posters with the things that you are doing that are going well and the things you need support with. These will form the basis of problem solving session later today and tomorrow
- 1.00 Lunch
- Final

- 2.00 Young people with SEND getting a job - Barry Jones
- 2.30 Workshops one
- Future of social care
 - Co-production with families
 - Educational budgets
 - Personal Outcome Evaluation Tool (POET) update
 - Getting a job * just day one
 - Community enterprise and local area coordination
 - Children and families Act and Care Act synergies, disputes and resolutions
 - Personal health budgets and young people in care just day two
- 3.45 TEA BREAK
- 4.15 Open space session one
Based on the themes identified this morning
- 5.30 key learning from open space
The plan for tomorrow

Wednesday 7th November 2018

- 9.15 Arrival for day two and coffee –
Welcome and plan for today
- 9.30 André Imich - SEN and Disability Professional Adviser, DfE
- 10.00 Personal health budgets and young people in care – Lesley Pollard,
Chilypep, Sheffield
- 10.30am Workshops two
Repeated from day one plus
- 11.30 Coffee break
- 11.45 Open space 2
Based on the themes identified yesterday
- 12.45 Round up from the days, reflections
- 1.00 LUNCH and FINISH

Final