

Whole life means.....

27th Residential workshop for Children's Services or the very first
'Whole Life' residential!

3rd and 4th November 2015, Watford

in  Control[®]

The logo for 'in Control' features the word 'in' in a black sans-serif font, followed by a red stylized sunburst icon with a central circle, and the word 'Control' in a large, bold, red sans-serif font with a registered trademark symbol (®) at the top right.

Welcome

- Housekeeping – phones fires food toilets and coffee breaks
- All presentations will be put up on our website later this week and we will share with you and all our members as soon as we can....there is a workbook for notes and contact details etc

Whole life means.....

- What does 'whole life' mean to you?
- On the back of your badge is a number for a table groupcan you find your table and introduce yourselves.....and be ready to offer an end to the sentence 'Whole life means...'

'From birth onwards Independent living for all'

Jamie Bolling, Chief Executive, European Network for Independent Living

Email: jamie.bolling@enil.eu

Inclusive change – lessons from the frontline

- Alex Fox, Shared Lives and Angela Cately, Community Catalysts

Email: alex@sharedlivesplus.org.uk
angela.cately@communitycatalysts.co.uk

Keeping the person at the centre

- Sam Bennett, Lead for the IPC and PHB Programmes, NHS England

Email: Sam.bennett6@nhs.net

Introducing the workshops (Workshop 1, 1.15-2.15)

1. The Care Act and thinking ‘whole life’

John Waters (Director Research and Development, In Control) and Andrew Cozens (LGA Service Improvement lead and In Control Trustee)

2. The Children and Family Act, SEND Reforms and thinking ‘whole life’

Patrick Agius, (Department for Education), Nic Crosby and Andrew Baxter (In Control)

3. NHS England, The 5 year Forward View and thinking ‘whole life’

Zoe Porter (NHS England), Jo Webber (In Control Trustee) and Stuart Lane (Lanes4Change and In Control Trustee)

4. Thinking ‘whole life’ and the voice of experience

Jamie Bolling, Miro Griffiths (In Control) and Clenton Farquharson

Introducing the workshops (Workshop 2, 2.15-3.15)

1. Community inclusion and family leadership

Lynne Elwell (Partners-in-Policy Making and In Control), Nikki Delgarno (Children's Team, In Control) and Elaine Cotterill (In Control Trustee) TBC

2. Making the most of community wealth and community budget holding

John Waters, Andrew Tyson, and Angela Gately (Community Catalysts)

3. Learning the skills for work (Post 16 learning and education)

Caroline Tomlinson (My Life) & Tricia Nicoll

4. Finding, recruiting and retaining personal assistants

Miro Griffiths (In Control) and Euan Mitchell (ICY – In Control Youth)

Introducing the workshops (Workshop 3, 3.45-4.45)

1. POET – the importance of a whole life all age approach

Natasha Burberry (In Control) and Claire Lazarus (In Control)

2. Co-production and the voice of people

Jill Bauld (Children's Team, In Control) and Sue Bott (Disability Rights UK and In Control Trustee)

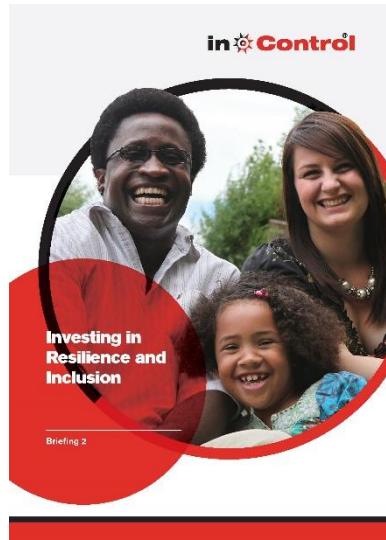

3. Providers leading change from childcare to elderly support

Angela Boyle, Gilly Crosby (Elderly support research and In Control Trustee)
TBC and Paul Davies (Childcare provision and In Control Trustee)

4. Collaborative care, working together and integrating support

Martin Routledge (Director C4CC – Coalition for Collaborative Care)

A Life not a Service

Lunch – the next workshop will start immediately after lunch

Introducing the workshops (Workshop 1, 1.15-2.15)

1. The Care Act and thinking ‘whole life’

John Waters (Director Research and Development, In Control) and Andrew Cozens (LGA Service Improvement lead and In Control Trustee)

2. The Children and Family Act, SEND Reforms and thinking ‘whole life’

Patrick Agius, (Department for Education), Nic Crosby and Andrew Baxter (In Control)

3. NHS England, The 5 year Forward View and thinking ‘whole life’

Zoe Porter (NHS England), Jo Webber (In Control Trustee) and Stuart Lane (Lanes4Change and In Control Trustee)

4. Thinking ‘whole life’ and the voice of experience

Jamie Bolling, Miro Griffiths (In Control) and Clenton Farquharson

Introducing the workshops (Workshop 2, 2.15-3.15)

1. Community inclusion and family leadership

Lynne Elwell (Partners-in-Policy Making and In Control), Nikki Delgarno (Children's Team, In Control) and Elaine Cotterill (In Control Trustee) TBC

2. Making the most of community wealth and community budget holding

John Waters, Andrew Tyson, and Angela Gately (Community Catalysts)

3. Learning the skills for work (Post 16 learning and education)

Caroline Tomlinson (My Life) & Tricia Nicoll

4. Finding, recruiting and retaining personal assistants

Miro Griffiths (In Control) and Euan Mitchell (ICY – In Control Youth)

A Life not a Service

Tea – the next workshop will start immediately after the tea break

Introducing the workshops (Workshop 3, 3.45-4.45)

1. POET – the importance of a whole life all age approach

Natasha Burberry (In Control) and Claire Lazarus (In Control)

2. Co-production and the voice of people

Jill Bauld (Children's Team, In Control) and Sue Bott (Disability Rights UK and In Control Trustee)

3. Providers leading change from childcare to elderly support

Angela Boyle, Gilly Crosby (Elderly support research and In Control Trustee)
TBC and Paul Davies (Childcare provision and In Control Trustee)

4. Collaborative care, working together and integrating support

Martin Routledge (Director C4CC – Coalition for Collaborative Care)

Thinking practically – what can we learn, what does this mean for our services....what next? And what support do you need?

Nic Crosby and Tricia Nicoll

A Life not a Service

Finish
Dinner...7.30

Whole life means.....

27th Residential workshop for Children's Services or the very first
'Whole Life' residential!

3rd and 4th November 2015, Watford

in  Control[®]

The logo for 'in Control' features the word 'in' in a black sans-serif font, followed by a red stylized sunburst icon with a central circle, and the word 'Control' in a large, bold, red sans-serif font with a registered trademark symbol (®) at the top right.

Welcomewhole life means

Co-chairs Lynne and Nikki

Hearing what you think.....

- There will be a survey monkey sent out before the end of the week.....
- We will be putting up boards for feedback at the end of the morning
- Headlines and highlights from Day 1?

Person centred integration....the easy read version
“Me My Family My Home”

Nic Crosby

in  Control

Who decided the best way to support people was to cut them up in to different slices of needs and labels?

in  Control[®]

in  Control[®]

A Life not a Service

Investing in resilience and inclusion
A whole life whole family approach
A guide to implementing the new public offer

Thinking practically – workshops

1. All things personal budgets – Andrew Baxter and Natasha Burberry
2. Joining things up – Nic Crosby, Harry Barrow (ICY)
3. Culture change – Julie Stansfield and Euan Mitchell (ICY)
4. EHC Planning and outcomes – Tricia Nicoll and Nikki Dalgarno
5. Planning for the future and whole life – Jill Bauld and Keiran Bennett (ICY)

Feedback

Good lives

Duncan Tree, Volunteering Matters

Always co-production

Martin Yates and Isaac Samuels, National Co-production
Advisory Group

Building a community of change
Nic Crosby and Angela Boyle

Building a community of change

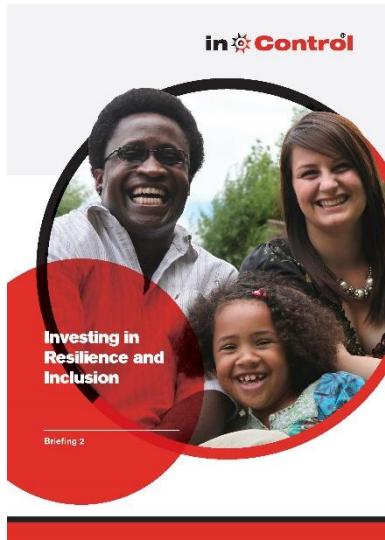

- This is the 27th residential ...started in 2007 with seven children's services
- There were leadership events for adult social care
- Time to widen our membership ...reflecting a commitment to whole lifechildren services, adult social care, health, voluntary sector, provider services.....and people, all working together
- The 28th...29th...30th and will all have a whole life focus – we will work hard to ensure they are useful, and supportive for all attending (8th and 9th March 2016)

Building a community of change – making a start Examples of good practice – whole life / all ages

Andrew Baxter, In Control

Think 'Whole Life!'

Our 28th Residential will be on 7th and 8th March 2016 in Leeds

Travel safe! And Thank You!

www.in-control.org.uk